

Cincinnati United Soccer Club Position Opening CUP Girls Technical Director

Cincinnati United Soccer Club (CU) is the largest, fastest growing, and most successful club in Ohio with players coming from Southwest Ohio, Northern Kentucky, and Southeast Indiana. The club currently fields 200 teams with over 2,500 players. Since 1993, CU has developed top players, has been part of more than 80 OSYSA State Cup Championships, and CU has won the top divisions of some of the nation's highest rated US Youth and US Club events and leagues. The summer of 2017, CU placed 5 teams at US Youth Soccer Nationals with the CUP Gold 2000 Girls winning a National Championship. Cincinnati United is honored to be a US Soccer Development Academy club for both the boys and girl's programs. The Girls DA program is a joint venture with Kings Hammer Soccer Club and will be playing under the Cincinnati Development Academy (CDA) banner.

The CUP Girls/ CDA programs have become the destination for players wanting to not only compete at the highest levels in youth soccer, but to learn and develop into the best player they can be. The girls programs have 36 youth teams that include several rated at or near the top in the Midwest and the Nation. The teams are coached by highly licensed, experienced and talented staff. Last year, CUP had more teams than any other club in the entire nation participating in the US Youth Soccer National League. This included several champions. The CUP girls/CDA Premier teams have a girls' team in every National League age group for 2017-2018 and a team in every premier division of the regional league. The club has a stated goal of getting players placed into quality college programs and in National teams, the club has a proven history of developing players that are continuously recognized by US Soccer, US Youth Soccer, US Club Soccer, and Collegiate programs across the country.
